

OTTERBOX iPROTECTION for the iPhone 4S & 4

FORM

Our engineers and industrial designers carefully considered all aspects of the device to accommodate the ergonomics and natural use of every feature and function. Styling and textures in combination with high quality materials create the most solid protective solution.

FIT

A unique multi-layer combination fits precisely to undoubtedly protect. A built-in screen protector maintains full touch functionality while guarding against scratches and scuffs. The inner polycarbonate layer fully encloses the iPhone and the internal memory foam provides added cushion inside the case. The external silicone layer completes the case with impact absorbing qualities providing protection from drops, bumps and shock.

FUNCTION

The OtterBox Defender Series is synonymous with rugged protection and provides uninhibited use of the device when installed. Highly portable, this case provides superior protection when and where it's needed.
